The Court made the following:

JUDGMENT: (per Sri B. Sudershan Reddy, J)

We are not inclined to interfere with the ad interim discretionary order passed by the learned single Judge, at this stage. Learned counsel for the appellants confined his submissions only to the extent of the condition imposed requiring the appellants – petitioners to deposit certain amounts. According to the learned counsel for the appellants, there is no such requirement of depositing the amounts at this stage.

It shall always be open to the appellants to bring the necessary facts and the correct legal position to the notice of the learned single Judge and seek appropriate orders.

With the observations as above, the writ appeal shall stand dismissed.
